Anthony Marré and Brian Kilpatrick named 2018 Texas Rising Stars

Houston, March 12, 2018 – Attorneys Anthony Marré and Brian B. Kilpatrick of Wilson Cribbs + Goren, PC, one of the largest boutique real estate law firms in Texas, have once again been selected to the 2018 Texas Rising Stars list. Each year, no more than 2.5 percent of the lawyers in the state are selected by the research team at Super Lawyers to receive this honor.

Marré is the managing shareholder for the firm, and is board-certified in commercial real estate law by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization. Marré counsels clients in all segments of the real estate industry, including matters relating to construction, development, leasing, debt and equity financing, acquisition, and disposition of multifamily, student housing, retail, office, industrial, self-storage and mixed-use projects. His practice also includes land use regulation, deed restrictions, development agreements, platting disputes, re-zonings, variances and economic development incentives. Marré received his law degree from the University of Houston Law Center and his undergraduate degree from Texas A&M University in College Station, Texas.

Kilpatrick, a former commercial real estate broker, focuses his practice on real estate litigation. He received his law degree from the South Texas College of Law and his undergraduate degree from the University of Texas in Austin.

Super Lawyers, a Thomson Reuters business, is a rating service of outstanding lawyers from more than 70 practice areas who have attained a high degree of peer recognition and professional achievement. The annual selections are made using a patented multiphase process that includes a statewide survey of lawyers, an independent research evaluation of candidates and peer reviews by practice area. The result is a credible, comprehensive and diverse listing of exceptional attorneys. For more information about Super Lawyers, visit SuperLawyers.com.
